Dear Mr. Jones:

This correspondence is in response to your Request for Additional Information (RFAI) for the above referenced report.

Regarding Schedule A contributions which appear to have exceeded the regulated limits, we have identified the contributions in question and made appropriate amendments to our report. We conduct an ongoing effort to validate and correct the information we track and report regarding our federal activity. We make corrections to our reports as information is received. The contributions identified by your letter have been refunded and a copy of the refund check has been mailed to FEC.

I trust this response will meet your requirements, however please feel free to contact me if you have any remaining questions.

Sincerely,

Pat Huyck
Director of Accounting
